ACCOMMODATION

Organising the entire accommodation activity in student dorms is regulated by Rules and regulations related to student dorm organisation and functioning (RU 34), which is posted on the USAMV Cluj-Napoca site, at:

<https://www.usamvcluj.ro/universitatea/documente-publice/carta-usamv/>

Students that wish to be accommodated in the USAMV Cluj-Napoca dorms during the academic year need to fill in the accommodation forms, the links specific to each faculty being available at: : <https://www.usamvcluj.ro/cazare-studenti/>.

- ◆ The accommodation forms are to be filled in online during the months of July-August.
- ◆ The registration on the accommodation lists is done by accessing each faculty's link on the page <https://www.usamvcluj.ro/cazare-studenti/>:
 1. Accommodation forms Faculty of Forestry and Cadastre
 2. Accommodation forms Faculty of Agriculture
 3. Accommodation forms Faculty of Animal Science and Biotechnologies
 4. Accommodation forms Faculty of Horticulture and Business in Rural Development
 5. Accommodation forms Faculty of Veterinary Medicine
 6. Accommodation forms Faculty of Food Science and Technology
 7. Accommodation forms Faculty of Doctoral Programmes
- ◆ The accommodation calendar can be found at <https://www.usamvcluj.ro/cazare-studenti/>
- ◆ The University Accommodation Committee annually allots USAMV CN dorm rooms/beds.
 - The number of allotted bed number per faculty is proportional to its number of budget students (Bachelor, Master, PhD programmes) and to the number of foreign students from the English and French study lines or to the ERASMUS+, CEEPUS, COST, AUF etc international programmes students, or to the inter-government agreement students (Romanian state scholarship beneficiaries).
 - Accommodation special requests (students with families, students from orphan care residential centres, orphans with no parent alive, students with severe and profound/total handicaps according to Law no. 448/2006, single students financially providing for their children) have to be registered in the first two weeks in September.
 - The preliminary accommodation lists per faculty (specialisation /year of study/dorm) are posted with at least 7 days before the accommodation proper.
 - Filing any contestation will be done in maximum 48 hours from posting the results - at the faculty dean's office (in person and online, after the contestation received a registration number).
 - Student accommodation will be in effect with at least two days before the beginning of the academic year.

❖ The Accommodation committee per faculty takes into consideration the following special cases:

(a) Social cases (students from orphan care residential centres, students with one or no parents living, students from single-parent families, students with severe medical problems - certificate for handicap degree) will have accommodation priority.

(b) Students that are part of the Dorm Student Council (DSC) will have a dorm bed ensured.

(c) Single students that financially provide for their children and that live together with their children will be accommodated in special rooms, with a higher degree of comfort.

(d) If any two sibling students of the UASVMCN from different faculties or from the same faculty, different specialisations benefit from accommodation rights, it is recommended that they should be accommodated in the same room/dorm, by accommodation request.

(e) First year undergraduates (Bachelor and Master programmes) will be accommodated in the order of their admission average grade.

(f) The children of active teaching staff and auxiliary teaching staff are beneficiaries of free dorm accommodation (art. 128, par. (19), (21) of LIS no. 199/2023) during the academic year, except the holidays.

(g) The children of retired teaching staff and auxiliary teaching staff, as well as orphan children with one or no parents living, the parents being formerly part of the education system are beneficiaries of free dorm accommodation (art. 128, par. (23) of LIS no. 199/2023) during the academic year, except the holidays.

◆ The Dorm Student Council, made of 7 representatives of students accommodated in the respective dorm, assigns the students to their rooms and appoints room and floor representatives, under the dorm administrator's supervision. The council student list is posted on the entrance door in the case of every dorm. This list is made of names, surnames, the number of allotted room and phone number.

◆ In case of vacant beds: they can be allotted to students who have not successfully taken all their exams, to tax students and to students with a currency/non-currency account (full time courses, with a permanent residence at over 20 km from USAMV CN).

◆ Budget students: may benefit from any one dorm bed.

◆ Tax students: may benefit from any one dorm bed if there are any vacancies left.

◆ ACCOMMODATION PROCEDURE : the students present themselves at the allotted dorm with the following documents:

(a) the sum of money corresponding to the accommodation fee for the first accommodation month;

(b) identity card (original and signed certified copy);

(c) 2 identity card type photos for the Dorm access card and the Rental contract;

(d) certificate attesting to the condition of being the child of an active or retired member of the teaching staff, and, respectively, handicap degree/orphan/orphan care residential centre certificate or specific documents - if the case;

(e) medical certificate from the GP (general practitioner) attesting to community entrance validation (from a medical point of view).

★ When accommodating - students sign the Rental contract with the university and receive the corresponding bed usage rights and other inventory list items on an individual proceeding basis.

★ Accommodation fee - monthly payments done in the last 5 days of the month in the account of the following month, cash or by card, at the dorm admin office.

★ Penalty fee - 30 lei penalty for delayed accommodation fee payment.

★ If the student doesn't pay the accommodation fee for 2 months, the contract is considered terminated, without being given any notice and the student is banned from the dorm.
